JOHN CHU	)

EX PARTE MOTION FOR HEARING ON QUESTION
OF COUNSEL AND TO WITHDRAW AS COUNSEL

Undersigned counsel moves for a hearing on the question of counsel and to withdraw from the above-captioned case. As ground therefor, counsel states that his relationship with his client has utterly deteriorated. Mr. Chu believes that this counsel is acting to his disadvantage and to the government's benefit. The level of mistrust prevents any productive discussion about the case. An obvious fruit of this is that Mr. Chu now files his own pleadings. Mr. Chu deserves to have confidence in his counsel. Undersigned counsel moves to withdraw and asks that substitute counsel be appointed, as that will assure the interests of justice.
